Rifle Practice at Home and Abroad

and has received the support of Pres and ex-President Roose-vell.

There are at the present time 23 to iniversities, colleges and schools where army officers are detailed with an enrollment in the military department, ladies of nobility and others. The giving of the prizes is attended by the civil and military authorities. The king gives the prizes to the first propriations under the Morrill Act. Of this number only 3,239 receive outdoor instruction and 9,748 gallery practice. In addition to the above institutions there are 28 private military schools with an approximate at large of the state of propriations with an approximate at large of the first water? To be smart it is essential to be amusing, and to amuse is difficult without a flavor of eccentrically—the something original, daring, hors ligne, which duller people talk about and princes admire.

All the really smart people have been original, and have liked to make the common herb wonder. In dress, in 1902, the date of manner, in lauguage, in conduct they are always astonishing. To be leaders they have to devise new institutions there are 28 private mili-tary schools with an approximate at tendance of 2,500. Through lack of proper facilities, such practice as they have is of little value.

in horses is due to neglect.

See that your horse is not allowed to go lame. Keep Sloan's Liniment on hand and apply at the first sign of stiffness. It's wonderfully penetrating — goes right to the spot — relieves the soreness — limbers up the joints and makes the muscles elastic and pliant.

Here's the Proof.

Mr. G. T. Roberts of Resaca, Ga., R.F.D. No. 1, Box 41, writes: — "I have used your Liniment on a horse for sweeney and effected a thorough care. I also removed a spavin on a mule. This spavin was as large as a gainea egg. In my estimation the best remedy for lameness and soveness is

Sloan's Liniment

Mr. H. M. Gibbs, of Lawrence, Kans., R.P.D. No. 3, writes: — "Your Liniment is the best that I have ever used. I had a mare with an absess on her neck and one 50c. bottle of Sloan's Liniment entirely cured her. I keep it around all the time for galls and small swellings and for everything about the stock."

Sloan's Liniment will kill a spavin, curb or splint, re-duce wind puffs and swollen joints, and is a sure and speedy remedy for fistula, sweeney, founder and thrush.
